

FRESHMAN ENGLISH POLICY COMMITTEE

MINUTES

February 27, 1985

Attending: Ruszkiewicz, Bertelsen, Byerman,
Daniell, Holt

Absent: Frost, Cherry

- I. Meeting commenced at 1:33 p.m.

- II. Daniell moved that the committee delay Mr. Puangmali's research proposal until he responds to Ruszkiewicz's letter asking for more information. The motion was passed unanimously.

- III. There was general discussion about alternatives the FEPC could present to the English Department to mitigate the consequences of the E 346K delay. Some of the suggestions were the following:
 - A. Increase the ECT score required for students to place out of E 306.
 - B. Add a 307-like course as an elective.

Everyone agreed to wait until the next FEPC meeting to consider specific proposals.

- IV. Ruszkiewicz announced that he had written Sutherland about the possibility of making Light German's Writing Lab directorship a specialist or a lecturer position for next year. Ruszkiewicz asked for the members' thoughts on this matter.

Bertelsen suggested other possibilities, including the Writing Lab director being a tenured or tenure-track professor.

The discussion ended with Bertelsen's motion that the committee recommend that Ruszkiewicz talk to Sutherland about the feasibility of hiring Light German as a specialist in the Writing Lab. Byerman seconded the motion, and it was passed unanimously.

- V. Ruszkiewicz, speaking for Frost, suggested that a professor be assigned to work on the textbook subcommittee with Holt (who is responsible for rhetorics). The committee unanimously agreed that this action was unnecessary.
- VI. The meeting adjourned at 2:30 p.m.
