MEMORANDUM

TO: John Ruszkiewicz
Light German

FROM: Bill Sutherland

Bill

The new English requirements will make us think about new and imaginative ways to use the lab. As a start, I have asked Lester Faigley to see how writing centers are used in some other universities, and I have asked Jerry Bump to look into the different ways computers can be used. They will be down to talk to you about what they find and to get suggestions.
