

1. Remember that as of May 30, you are unemployed and ELIGIBLE for unemployment compensation. Simply apply at the Texas Employment Commission. UT must pay a percentage of your compensation since they were your last employers.

2. If you can't move your books and papers out of the office by finals as Dorothy's terse good-bye note suggested, you should know that no one else will be moving in, and take all the time you need.

3. Any unemployed lecturer who gives up the U.T. I.D. card and loses library privileges (at the very time when scholarship is tantamount to our survival) has an inflated sense of the dept's administrative power.
